

REV. JOHN M. P. METCALF, A.M.

President of Talladega College, Talladega, Ala. Six hundred and thirty-one students, 34 teachers and 16 theological students, in 1908. Annual expenses, $20,000.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY, TALLADEGA COLLEGE, TALLADEGA, ALA.

Founded 1867, by the American Missionary Association. The first college opened to colored people in Alabama. Located within one hundred miles of the center of the Negro population of the United States. The Carnegie Library contains 7,000 volumes. There are scholarships at Talladega aggregating $21,000.

SWAYNE HALL, TALLADEGA COLLEGE

GRADUATING CLASS TALLADEGA COLLEGE, TALLADEGA, ALA.